

CATENIAN ASSOCIATION

“Strengthening family life through friendship and faith”

The Catenian Association provides practising Catholic laymen and families with friendship and support. Catenians through their membership find camaraderie to provide support in their faith, in their family lives as husband and father, and in their chosen career.

With around 35 members across the lower North Shore, the group meets monthly followed by a social dinner afterwards, usually with a guest speaker. The group also meets with approximately 1,000 members across Australia at events of interest.
