Sunday 10 June 2018 – Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Not from the Pulpit: Fr Michael Stoney SJ

Last Friday, 8 June, was the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. No doubt, many of us can remember the popularity of this devotion in our childhood. Much less known today but still a relevant message in 2018. God, sadly, is still often seen these days as a harsh, ancient tyrant. In other contexts, God is reduced to an amiable, somewhat doddering, nonentity. Not so for Paul the Apostle. 'The unfathomable treasure of Christ', he reminds the Ephesians in a reading chosen for the feast. 'Knowing the love of Christ which is beyond knowledge,' he continues, 'may you be filled with the utter fullness of God.'

We Christians are called to serve our world of 2018. So much violence, such widespread hoarding of our world's rich resources. Our best service may be to preach in word and action the central role of love in God's plan: for God, for ourselves, for one another, perhaps especially for those we don't like. God will then be loved crazily, but effectively.
